

Annual Management Report of Fund Performance

AGF Canadian All Cap Strategic Equity Fund

September 30, 2022

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

This management discussion of fund performance represents the portfolio management team's view of the significant factors and developments affecting the fund's performance and outlook.

Investment Objective and Strategies

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the investment objective of AGF Canadian All Cap Strategic Equity Fund (the "Fund") is to provide risk-managed capital growth through exposure to shares of primarily Canadian companies, across the market capitalization spectrum, expected to profit from future economic growth. To achieve this objective, AGF Investments Inc. ("AGFI"), as portfolio manager, generally allocates the Fund's assets among underlying mutual funds (the "Underlying Funds") and exchange traded funds ("ETFs") managed by third parties or AGFI (or an AGFI affiliate). AGFI has set, and reviews quarterly, target dynamic allocations between Canadian equity funds and ETFs for the Fund, consistent with the Fund's investment objective. During periods of market downturn or for other reasons, a significant portion of the Fund's assets may be held in cash or cash equivalents.

Risk

The risks of investing in the Fund remain as disclosed in the current prospectus. Any changes to the Fund over the period have not affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

The Fund continues to be suitable for investors seeking the growth potential of equity securities through a mix of small, medium and large capitalization Canadian companies, investing for the longer term with a medium tolerance for risk. The suitability of the Fund has not changed from what has been disclosed in the prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund commenced operations in July 2022.

The Fund holds Series O Shares/Units of the Underlying Funds. The Fund's major portfolio categories, as a percentage of Net Asset Value as at September 30, 2022, include approximately 95.0% in Canadian equity funds and 8.0% in cash and cash equivalents, net of 3.0% of payable for investments purchased.

Recent Developments

The global economy had to contend with a series of challenges in the year ended September 30, 2022. Russia's invasion of Ukraine and its impact on commodity markets, supply chain and inflation slowed global growth. Certain commodities, including fertilizers, natural gas and crude oil, witnessed a sharp surge in prices as supply uncertainty gripped the markets. Since Russia accounts for over 40.0% of the world's potash production, a key component of fertilizer manufacturing, concerns of a global food shortage weighed on market sentiment for the first half of calendar year 2022. In addition to these concerns, higher than expected inflation, particularly in the U.S. and major European economies, triggered faster policy tightening from central banks globally.

Throughout this year, the Canadian economy also has had to face growing inflation, which touched a four-decade high of 8.1% in June 2022. This was attributable to the global supply chain bottlenecks, fluctuating commodity prices and monetary-loosening policies of the Bank of Canada ("BoC") during the outbreak of the Omicron variant of the COVID-19 virus. Following this, the BoC took a hawkish stance to curb rising domestic inflation like many other developed markets' central banks, resorting to measured monetary policy tightening. It executed a series of rate hikes, with the last one up 0.75% taking place in September 2022 amid high expectations of short-term inflation.

Canadian equities (as measured by the S&P/TSX Composite Index) shed approximately 14.0% in calendar year 2022. This is attributable to weakening global economic growth, worries about rising inflation and monetary policy tightening. Nonetheless, Canadian equities' higher exposure to the energy and materials sectors, and limited exposure to the technology sector resulted in relative out-performance in comparison to U.S. and global equities.

The portfolio manager continues to believe that the Canadian equity markets will remain well-positioned in an environment with higher oil and commodity prices. With uncertainty around Russian supply of various commodities, such as oil and gas, base metals, fertilizers, wheat, and other commodities, Canada is well-positioned as a producer and major exporter of many of those same products. However, the BoC's tightening monetary policy in combination with higher levels of household debt should be monitored in the near term as Canadian households may be more sensitive to rising rates.

The portfolio manager of the Underlying Funds and ETFs continues to focus on companies with low leverage and higher visibility. During the year ended September 30, 2022, the underlying portfolios have sold out of some small and micro-capitalization companies and have allocated towards higher quality large capitalization companies as well as a few foreign holdings in sectors where Canadian equities lack breadth. The portfolio manager of the Underlying Funds and ETFs believes this higher quality, diversified approach can help the portfolios endure this period of uncertainty in global equity markets.

Related Party Transactions

AGFI is the manager ("Manager") and trustee of the Fund. Pursuant to the management agreement between the Fund and AGFI, AGFI is responsible for the day-to-day business of the Fund. AGFI also acts as the investment (portfolio) manager of the Fund, providing analysis and making decisions as to which Underlying Funds and ETFs the Fund invests in and the target weighting of the Fund's assets. Fees payable to AGFI for such services are payable directly by unitholders and are not expenses of the Fund.

AGFI pays for all of the operating expenses relating to the operation of the Fund, except for certain costs as disclosed in the current prospectus, in exchange for a fixed rate administration fee. The administration fee is calculated based on the Net Asset Value of the Fund at a fixed annual rate of 0.32%. Administration fees of approximately $1,000 were incurred by the Fund during the period from commencement of operations to September 30, 2022.

AGFI is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of AGF Management Limited.

Caution Regarding Forward-looking Statements

This report may contain forward-looking statements about the Fund, including its strategy, expected performance and condition. Forward looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates" or negative versions thereof and similar expressions.

In addition, any statement that may be made concerning future performance, strategies or prospects, and possible future Fund action, is also a forward-looking statement. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events and are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions about the Fund and economic factors.

The forward-looking statements are by their nature based on numerous assumptions, which include, amongst other things, that (i) the Fund can attract and maintain investors and has sufficient capital under management to effect its investment strategies, (ii) the investment strategies will produce the results intended by the portfolio manager, and (iii) the markets will react and perform in a manner consistent with the investment strategies. Although the forward-looking statements contained herein are based upon what the portfolio manager believes to be reasonable assumptions, the portfolio manager cannot assure that actual results will be consistent with these forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and actual events and results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by the Fund. Any number of important factors could contribute to these digressions, including, but not limited to, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, global equity and capital markets, business competition, taxation, changes in government regulations, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, technological changes, cybersecurity, the possible effects of war or terrorist activities, outbreaks of disease or illness that affect local, national or international economies (such as COVID-19), natural disasters and disruptions to public infrastructure, such as transportation, communications, power or water supply or other catastrophic events.

It should be stressed that the above-mentioned list of factors is not exhaustive. You are encouraged to consider these and other factors carefully before making any investment decisions and you are urged to avoid placing undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Further, you should be aware of the fact that the Fund has no specific intention of updating any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, prior to the release of the next Management Report of Fund Performance.

Explanatory Notes

- (1) a) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. Under International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), investments that are traded in an active market are generally valued at closing price, which is determined to be within the bid-ask spread and most representative of fair value. As a result, there is no difference between the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements ("Net Assets") and the net asset value per unit calculated for fund pricing purposes ("Net Asset Value").
- b) The Fund commenced operations in July 2022, which represents the date upon which securities were first made available for purchase by investors.
- (2) Net Assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period.
- (3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both. The characterization of the distributions is based on management's estimate of the actual income for the year.
- (4) This is not a reconciliation of the beginning and ending Net Assets per unit.
- (5) The management expense ratio ("MER") is calculated in accordance with National Instrument 81-106, based on all the expenses of the Fund (including Harmonized Sales Tax, Goods and Services Tax and interest, but excluding foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if applicable, of the underlying funds and ETFs in which the Fund has invested, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value during the period.
- (6) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, including the Fund's proportionate share of the commissions, if applicable, of the underlying funds and ETFs in which the Fund has invested, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value during the period.
- (7) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's PTR in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

PTR is calculated based on the lesser of the cumulative cost of purchases or cumulative proceeds of sales divided by the average market value of the portfolio, excluding short-term investments.

Management Fees

The Fund is managed by AGFI. AGFI is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Fund, which include providing investment and management services as well as other administrative services required by the Fund. The management fees for such services are payable directly by the unitholders, not by the Fund.

AGFI bears all operating expenses relating to the operation of the Fund, except for certain costs as disclosed in the Fund's prospectus. In exchange, AGFI receives an administration fee at the annual rate of 0.32%, which is subject to applicable taxes, based on the Net Asset Value of the Fund, calculated daily and payable monthly.

Past Performance

It is AGFI's policy to report rates of return for a fund in existence greater than one year. The Fund commenced operations in July 2022.
