

Annual Management Report of Fund Performance

AGF Floating Rate Income Fund

September 30, 2018

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

This management discussion of fund performance represents the portfolio management team's view of the significant factors and developments affecting the fund's performance and outlook.

Investment Objective and Strategies

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the investment objective of AGF Floating Rate Income Fund (the "Fund") is to provide a high level of current income by investing primarily in senior floating rate loans and other floating rate debt securities of companies domiciled in the U.S. Eaton Vance Management ("Eaton Vance"), as portfolio manager, uses a bottom-up, research driven investment approach, diversifying across sector, issuer and credit tier to invest in senior floating rate loans ("senior loans"). In bottom-up investing, the portfolio manager focuses attention on a specific company rather than on the industry in which that company operates or on the economy as a whole. The portfolio manager invests primarily in senior loans that pay interest rates that float, adjust or vary periodically, generally based on a recognized base lending rate such as the London Inter-Bank Offered Rate, a prime rate or another base lending rate used by commercial banks and lenders. The Fund may also invest in high yield bonds. In periods of unusual market conditions, a significant portion of the Fund's assets may be held in cash, cash equivalents or fixed income securities.

Risk

The risks of investing in the Fund remain as disclosed in the current prospectus. The Fund is suitable for investors investing for the medium to long-term, seeking the income potential of floating rate bank loan securities and who have low to medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

For the year ended September 30, 2018, the Mutual Fund Units of the Fund returned 2.4% (net of expenses) while the S&P/LSTA Leveraged Loan Index returned 5.3%. The performance of the other series of the Fund is substantially similar to that of the Mutual Fund Units, save for differences in expense structure. Refer to "Past Performance" section for performance information of such series.

The Fund under-performed the S&P/LSTA Leveraged Loan Index. During the reporting period, the Fund's relative performance reflected a combination of factors related to portfolio positioning. With respect to credit quality orientation, BB- and B-rated loans, together comprising the vast majority of the loan market, returned 4.3% and 5.4%, respectively. At the other end of the credit spectrum, CCCrated loans out-performed the broader market, returning 11.4%, while defaulted loans widely under-performed, returning -8.6% over the reporting period. As a result of this performance mix, the Fund's underweight allocation to CCC-rated loans detracted from performance, while its avoidance of defaulted loans contributed.

At the industry level, the Fund's broad level of diversification delivered exposure across the loan market's many industry segments. Return dispersion across individual industries was generally limited during the reporting period. The Fund's underweight exposure to retailers (excluding food and drug) detracted, as this was one of the loan market's best-performing areas during the reporting period, returning 9.0%. With respect to credit selection, continued recovery of certain holdings within the broker/dealers was beneficial to the Fund's relative performance. The Fund's loan picks within the oil & gas and business equipment & services also contributed to relative performance. Meanwhile, the Fund's selection within the electronics/electrical, cable & satellite TV, and health care industries detracted from relative results.

Additionally, the Fund's out-of-benchmark exposure to high yield bonds detracted from performance relative to the S&P/LSTA Leveraged Loan Index as high yield bonds generally under-performed loans during the reporting period.

The Fund entered into foreign exchange forward contracts during the period under review. As of September 30, 2018, the Fund was long Canadian dollar and short U.S. dollar in order to hedge its currency exposure.

Certain series of the Fund, as applicable, make monthly distributions at a rate determined by AGF Investments Inc. ("AGFI") from time to time. If the aggregate amount of the monthly distributions made to a series in a year exceeds the portion of the net income and net realized capital gains allocated to such series, the excess will constitute a return of capital. The portfolio manager does not believe that the distributions made by the Fund had a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objectives.

The Fund had net subscriptions of approximately $413 million for the current period, as compared to net subscriptions of approximately $229 million for the prior period. Rebalancing by an institutional program resulted in net subscriptions of approximately $322 million in the Fund. The portfolio manager does not believe that subscription activity had a meaningful impact on the Fund's performance or the ability to implement its investment strategy.

Total expenses before foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs vary period over period mainly as a result of changes in average

Net Asset Values (see Explanatory Note (1) a)) and investor activity, such as number of investor accounts and transactions. The increase in management fees accounted for most of the increase in expenses during the period as compared to the previous period due to an increase in average Net Asset Values. The increase in unitholder servicing and administrative fees was due to an increase in investor activity. Custodian fees increased due to an increase in market value of investment portfolio and registration fees increased due to an increase in subscription activity. All other expenses remained fairly consistent throughout the periods.

Recent Developments

There were no changes to the portfolio management team or the investment strategy during the reporting period. The cornerstones of the Fund's investment philosophy include rigorous fundamental credit research and diversification. As at the end of the reporting period, the Fund remained diversified across 409 loan issuer positions and 35 industry groups. The Fund also held 101 high yield bond issues. Looking ahead, the portfolio manager believes an optimal risk and return profile can be achieved predominately through interest income realized through investments of higher quality loans, rather than primarily seeking opportunities associated with lower quality or distressed loans. The Fund continues to maintain an overweight allocation to higher quality end of the loan market, with limited exposure to the lower rated and generally more speculative loan market segments.

Effective October 1, 2018, certain operating expenses relating to registrar and transfer agency services are paid directly by AGFI and in exchange, a fixed rate administration fee was introduced for the Mutual Fund Series, Series D, Series F, Series I, Series J, Series T and Series V Units, as applicable, of the Fund. The administration fee was approved by the unitholders of the Fund on June 14, 2018. The administration fee for each applicable series is calculated daily and payable monthly, based on the average Net Asset Value of the respective series of the Fund at a fixed annual rate, as disclosed in the current prospectus. The Fund continues to pay for all other operating expenses.

Related Party Transactions

AGFI is the manager ("Manager") and trustee of the Fund. Pursuant to the management agreement between the Fund and AGFI, AGFI is responsible for the day-to-day business of the Fund. AGFI acts either as the investment (portfolio) manager itself or hires an external investment manager to manage the investment portfolio of the Fund. Under the management agreement, the Fund (except for Series I, Series O, Series Q and Series W Units, if applicable) pays management fees, calculated based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series of the Fund. Management fees of approximately $5,261,000 were incurred by the Fund during the period ended September 30, 2018.

AGF CustomerFirst Inc. ("AGFC") provides transfer agency services to the Fund pursuant to a services agreement with AGFI. Unitholder servicing and administrative fees of approximately $551,000 incurred by the Fund were paid to AGFC during the period ended September 30, 2018.

AGFI and AGFC are indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of AGF Management Limited.

Explanatory Notes

(1) a) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. Under IFRS, investments that are traded in an active market are generally valued at closing price, which is determined to be within the bid-ask spread and most representative of fair value. As a result, there is no difference between the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements ("Net Assets") and the net asset value per unit calculated for fund pricing purposes ("Net Asset Value").

Total Net Asset Value and number of units outstanding presented as at September 30, 2015 may have been adjusted to include certain transactions, if applicable, for the purpose of comparability with subsequent reporting periods. These adjustments have no effect on the Net Asset Value per unit.

b) The following series of the Fund commenced operations on the following dates, which represents the date upon which securities of a series were first made available for purchase by investors.

- (2) Net Assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period.
- (3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both. The computation of the distributions per unit does not take into account the management fee distributions (see note 5 below). The characterization of the distributions is based on management's estimate of the actual income for the year.
- (4) This is not a reconciliation of the beginning and ending Net Assets per unit.
- (5) The management expense ratio ("MER") of a particular series is calculated in accordance with National Instrument 81-106, based on all the expenses of the Fund (including Harmonized Sales Tax, Goods and Services Tax and interest, but excluding foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if applicable, of the underlying funds and exchange traded funds ("ETFs") in which the Fund has invested, allocated to that series, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value of that series during the period.

AGFI may reduce the effective management fee payable by some unitholders by reducing the management fee it charges to the Fund and directing the Fund to make management fee distributions to these unitholders in amounts equal to the amounts of the management fee reduction. The MER does not take into account the reduction in management fees due to management fee distributions to unitholders.
- (6) AGFI waived certain fees or absorbed certain expenses otherwise payable by the Fund. The amount of expenses waived or absorbed is determined annually on a series by series basis at the discretion of AGFI and AGFI can terminate the waiver or absorption at any time.
- (7) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, including the Fund's proportionate share of the commissions, if applicable, of the underlying funds and ETFs in which the Fund has invested, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value during the period.
- (8) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's PTR in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

PTR is calculated based on the lesser of the cumulative cost of purchases or cumulative proceeds of sales divided by the average market value of the portfolio, excluding short-term investments.

Management Fees

The Fund is managed by AGFI. As a result of providing investment and management services, AGFI receives a monthly management fee, based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series, calculated daily and payable monthly. Management fees in respect of Series I, Series O, Series Q and Series W Units, if applicable, are arranged directly between the Manager and investors and are not expenses of the Fund. AGFI uses these management fees to pay for sales and trailing commissions to registered dealers on the distribution of the Fund's units, investment advice, as well as for general administrative expenses such as overhead, salaries, rent, legal and accounting fees relating to AGFI's role as manager.

	As a percentage of management fees
	Annual rates	Dealer compensation	General administration and investment advice
Mutual Fund Units	1.45%	11.66%	88.34%
Series F Units	0.95%	-	100.00%
Series T Units	1.45%	30.05%	69.95%
Series V Units	1.45%	28.21%	71.79%

Past Performance*

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. Note that the performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

It is AGFI's policy to report rates of return for series in existence greater than one year. The performance start date for each series represents the date of the first purchase of such series, excluding seed money.

All rates of return are calculated based on the Net Asset Value.

* The indicated rates of return shown here are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in security value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges by any securityholder that would have reduced returns or performance. Mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
