

Interim Management Report of Fund Performance

AGF Canadian Money Market Fund

March 31, 2018

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

This management discussion of fund performance represents the portfolio management team's view of the significant factors and developments affecting the fund's performance and outlook.

Results of Operations

For the six months ended March 31, 2018, the Mutual Fund Units of AGF Canadian Money Market Fund (the "Fund") returned nil (net of expenses) while the FTSE TMX Canada 91 Day T-Bill Index ("FTSE TMX 91 Day Index") returned 0.5%. The performance of the other series of the Fund is substantially similar to that of the Mutual Fund Units, save for differences in expense structure. Refer to "Past Performance" section for performance information of such series.

On an expense-adjusted basis, the Fund out-performed the FTSE TMX 91 Day Index. The Fund maintained exposure to money market instruments backed by Canadian financial institutions during the reporting period, which yielded more than the FTSE TMX 91 Day Index and thus contributed to the Fund's performance. Over the period under review, the Fund maintained a higher total average yield relative to the benchmark, which also added value.

Relative to the FTSE TMX 91 Day Index, the Fund maintained a shorter maturity profile over the reporting period and this positioning contributed to performance as money market yields climbed during the period while the Bank of Canada ("BoC") hiked interest rates.

The Fund had net redemptions of approximately $7 million for the current period, as compared to net redemptions of approximately $17 million in the prior period. The portfolio manager does not believe that redemption activity had a meaningful impact on the Fund's performance or the ability to implement its investment strategy.

Total expenses before foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs vary period over period mainly as a result of changes in average Net Asset Values (see Explanatory Note (1) a)) and investor activity, such as number of investor accounts and transactions. The decrease in management fees accounted for most of the decrease in expenses during the period as compared to the previous period due to a decrease in average Net Asset Values. The decrease in registration fees was due to a decrease in subscription activity. The increase in annual and interim reports and decrease in audit fees were due to variances between the accrued amounts versus the actual expenses incurred in the previous period. All other expenses remained fairly consistent throughout the periods.

Recent Developments

Uncertainty surrounding trade escalated during the first calendar quarter of 2018 as the U.S. imposed tariffs on several of its trading partners, most prominently China. While concerns about the North American Free Trade Agreement has softened in recent weeks, it remains to be seen what demands the U.S. administration will place on Canada and Mexico following their temporary exclusion from recent steel and aluminum tariffs. As such, the portfolio manager expects the BoC will remain cautious in raising interest rates further as it observes how trade negotiations unfold as well as the moderation in economic activity following a strong calendar year 2017. Canada's strong growth drivers in recent years, which included consumer spending and housing investments, are likely to moderate further as interest rates have risen and tighter mortgage rules have impacted housing demand. Encouragingly, Canada's labour market remains strong and this should help support the economic growth drivers, albeit at a more moderate pace. While any improvement in the economic data, including faster economic growth, rising inflation and/or further improvement in the labour market, may prompt the BoC to hike policy rates sooner than expected, the portfolio manager anticipates the pace of hikes to remain benign and at most matching that of the U.S. Federal Reserve (the "Fed").

The portfolio manager expects the Fed to remain committed to tightening policy given healthy financial conditions, as evidenced by the recent rate hike in March 2018 and the ongoing scheduled reduction in its balance sheet. The recent tax reform and spending bill in the U.S. are expected to continue to boost economic growth. As 2018 progresses, however, the market may be increasingly focused on the flattening of the yield curve if the Fed tightens too quickly. Another event for bond investors to consider in late 2018 and into 2019 is the potential that the European Central Bank and Bank of Japan may start tapering their respective asset purchase (i.e. quantitative easing) programs.

In this environment, the portfolio manager anticipates that bond yields will move higher if global growth and inflation continue to improve. Developments on these fronts will be a key element influencing the path of bond yields and monetary policy.

The portfolio manager expects the Fund to continue to take advantage of out-of-benchmark exposure in bankers' acceptance paper as they provide higher yields than do government-guaranteed and provincial treasury bills of a similar maturity. The portfolio manager will continue to actively manage the maturity profile of the Fund and may extend the profile in anticipation of rising interest rates, should the premium for holding longer term securities becomes more rewarding.

Explanatory Notes

(1) a) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements. Prior to October 1, 2014, the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements ("Net Assets") differed from the net asset value per unit calculated for fund pricing purposes ("Net Asset Value"), due to differences in valuation techniques of certain investments as required under Canadian GAAP. The adoption of IFRS, effective October 1, 2014, has generally eliminated the difference between Net Assets per unit and Net Asset Value per unit.

Total Net Asset Value and number of units outstanding presented as at September 30, 2015 may have been adjusted to include certain transactions, if applicable, for the purpose of comparability with subsequent reporting periods. These adjustments have no effect on the Net Asset Value per unit.

b) The following series of the Fund commenced operations on the following dates, which represents the date upon which securities of a series were first made available for purchase by investors.

|-------------------|----------------|
| Mutual Fund Units | December 1975 |
| Series F Units | January 2000 |
| Series O Units | September 2014 |

- c) In September 2014, the Fund recommenced the offering of Series O Units that are available to institutional investors. Series O Units previously commenced offering in January 2009 and were closed due to full redemption by unitholders in March 2013. The financial data of the Series O Units includes the results of operations from date of recommencement.
- (2) Net Assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period.
 - (3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both. The computation of the distributions per unit does not take into account the management fee distributions (see note 5 below). The characterization of the distributions is based on management's estimate of the actual income for the year.
 - (4) This is not a reconciliation of the beginning and ending Net Assets per unit.
 - (5) The management expense ratio ("MER") of a particular series is calculated in accordance with National Instrument 81-106, based on all the expenses of the Fund (including Harmonized Sales Tax, Goods and Services Tax and interest, but excluding foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) allocated to that series, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value of that series during the period.
AGFI may reduce the effective management fee payable by some unitholders by reducing the management fee it charges to the Fund and directing the Fund to make management fee distributions to these unitholders in amounts equal to the amounts of the management fee reduction. The MER does not take into account the reduction in management fees due to management fee distributions to unitholders.
 - (6) AGFI waived certain fees or absorbed certain expenses otherwise payable by the Fund. The amount of expenses waived or absorbed is determined annually on a series by series basis at the discretion of AGFI and AGFI can terminate the waiver or absorption at any time.
 - (7) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value during the period.
 - (8) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's PTR in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

PTR is calculated based on the lesser of the cumulative cost of purchases or cumulative proceeds of sales divided by the average market value of the portfolio, excluding short-term investments.

* The indicated rates of return shown here are the historical returns including changes in security value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges by any securityholder that would have reduced returns or performance. Mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

Management Fees

The Fund is managed by AGFI. As a result of providing investment and management services, AGFI receives a monthly management fee, based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series, calculated daily and payable monthly. Management fees in respect of Series I, Series O, Series Q and Series W Units, if applicable, are arranged directly between the Manager and investors and are not expenses of the Fund. AGFI uses these management fees to pay for sales and trailing commissions to registered dealers on the distribution of the Fund's units, investment advice, as well as for general administrative expenses such as overhead, salaries, rent, legal and accounting fees relating to AGFI's role as manager.

| | As a percentage of management fees | | |
|-------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------|--|
| | Annual rates | Dealer compensation | General administration and investment advice |
| Mutual Fund Units | 1.00% | 0.28% | 99.72% |
| Series F Units | 0.50% | - | 100.00% |

Past Performance*

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. Note that the performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

It is AGFI's policy to report rates of return for series in existence greater than one year. The performance start date for each series represents the date of the first purchase of such series, excluding seed money. During the ten year period ended September 30, 2017, certain other funds with similar investment objectives merged into the Fund. Generally, for fund mergers, the continuing fund is considered a new fund for the purpose of calculating rates of return and therefore, the rates of return have not been provided for the period of the merger and previous periods. However, the merger of Acuity Money Market Fund with the Fund in August 2011 did not constitute a material change to the Fund and accordingly did not impact the ability of the Fund to maintain its historical performance.

All rates of return are calculated based on the Net Asset Value.

Year-By-Year Returns

The following bar charts show the Fund's annual performance for each of the past 10 years to September 30, 2017 (interim performance for the six months ended March 31, 2018) as applicable, and illustrate how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period.
