Management Discussion of Fund Performance

This management discussion of fund performance represents the portfolio management team's view of the significant factors and developments affecting the fund's performance and outlook.

Results of Operations

For the six months ended March 31, 2024, the Mutual Fund Shares of AGF North American Dividend Income Class (the "Fund") returned 16.4% (net of expenses) while the S&P/TSX Composite Index ("S&P/TSX Index") returned 15.3%. The performance of the other series of the Fund is substantially similar to that of the Mutual Fund Shares, save for differences in expense structure. Refer to "Past Performance" section for performance information of such Series.

The Fund holds Series I Units of AGF North American Dividend Income Fund (the "Underlying Fund"), a fund managed by AGF Investments Inc. ("AGFI"). The discussion below references performance figures for Classic Series Units of the Underlying Fund. The performance of Series I Units is substantially similar to that of Classic Series Units, save for differences in expense structure. The Underlying Fund may be subject to valuation adjustments as outlined in the Underlying Fund's valuation policies as it relates to non-North American equities held by the Underlying Fund. A fair value adjustment can either positively or negatively impact the Underlying Fund's rate of return.

The Fund out-performed the S&P/TSX Index due to the Underlying Fund's security selection and sector allocation. The Information Technology sector was the biggest contributor to performance, owing to positive security selection decisions. The Consumer Staples sector also contributed to performance due to positive stock selection. This was partially offset by an unfavorable underweight allocation to and security selection decisions in the Energy sector, which detracted from performance the most. Security selection in the Financials sector also detracted, which was partially offset by a favorable underweight allocation to the sector. The Underlying Fund's cash position, which averaged 2.1% during the reporting period, also detracted from overall performance.

Certain series of the Fund, as applicable, make monthly distributions of capital at a rate determined by AGFI from time to time. The portfolio manager does not believe that the distributions made by the Fund had a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objectives.

The Underlying Fund entered into foreign exchange forward contracts during the period under review. As of March 31, 2024, the Underlying Fund was long Canadian dollar and short U.S. dollar in order to hedge its currency exposure.

The Fund had net redemptions of approximately $3 million for both the current and prior periods. The portfolio manager does not believe that redemption activity had a meaningful impact on the Fund's performance or the ability to implement its investment strategy.

All series of the Fund are closed to new investors as of July 5, 2023. The Fund remains available to existing investors, including those with systematic investment plans.

Total expenses before foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs vary period over period mainly as a result of changes in average Net Asset Values (see Explanatory Note (1) a)) and investor activity, such as number of investor accounts and transactions. Expenses have slightly decreased as compared to the previous period due mainly to a decrease in average Net Asset Values. All other expenses remained fairly consistent throughout the periods.

Recent Developments

Global equities rallied strongly during the reporting period. The major central banks of the developed world stopped hiking rates as global inflation levels began slowly coming down from record highs. As the impact of higher interest rates were felt in the U.S. and Europe, the expectation of possible rate cuts and avoiding a recession in 2024 became a real possibility. Throughout 2023, the excitement around the advances in artificial intelligence took the world by storm and gave impetus to the stellar performance of some of the biggest technology companies in the world, narrowing market leadership quite noticeably. However, towards the end of calendar year 2023, market leadership had widened as a surge in energy prices due to production cuts brought energy companies back into the spotlight. During the last calendar quarter of 2023, a renewed conflict in the Middle East added concerns about a new disruption to global activity and return of sustained volatility in the market.

In the U.S., despite expectations of a potential recession for a better part of 2023, the U.S. economy ended the calendar year strongly, with a gross domestic product growth figure of 3.4% during the final calendar quarter of 2023. As inflation continued to decline steadily through the reporting period, the U.S. Federal Reserve has been careful not to cut rates too fast. Unemployment in the country largely remained low throughout the reporting period, spiking suddenly in February 2024. Non-farm payrolls also added 200,000 jobs on average every month until February. The equity market continued to perform strongly through the reporting period, buoyed by expectations that interest rate cuts may be approaching. Till the end of March 2024, the S&P 500 Index recorded a new record level, forcing leading market analysts to reassess their 2024 target for the index. This rally was largely powered by the performance of several stocks termed the 'Magnificent 7' throughout. From a sector perspective, Information Technology and Communication Services performed well during the reporting period, while Utilities dragged on performance. The U.S. government's 10-year yield, having hit a peak of 5.0% in mid-October 2023, began a steep decline and ended the calendar year at 3.9%.

While 2023 ended up being one of the weakest years in recent history for Canada, the Bank of Canada ("BoC") held steady on its tightening stance. The fears of a sustained inflationary environment due to global risks like the attacks on Red Sea shipping routes, which have impacted global shipping costs, continued to influence policymaking. During the final calendar quarter of 2023, Canada's economy recovered from the contraction experienced in the previous quarter and recorded an expansion of 0.2%. The BoC kept interest rates unchanged at 5.0% for the fifth consecutive meeting in March 2024. The central bank is still concerned about annual inflation, even though it had fallen to 2.8% in February 2024, the lowest reading since June 2023. During its most recent meeting, the central bank's officials reiterated that the bank could not rule out the need to raise rates should inflation unexpectedly rise. Unemployment rate remained elevated throughout the reporting period, which was further proof of the lagged effects of elevated interest rates.

As the bull market continued during the first calendar quarter of 2024, the portfolio manager continues to have a constructive view on equities. The portfolio manager remains encouraged by the resilience of the U.S. economy, which has been underpinned by a resilient consumer sentiment with healthy household balance sheets and a tight labour market. While economic growth is expected to slow as the lagged impact of rate increases continues to take effect, the portfolio manager continues to believe that there is a strong likelihood of the U.S. economy being able to avoid a recession.

The portfolio manager continues to believe North American equity markets will remain well-positioned in the current volatile environment. Even as inflation is abating, it still remains elevated and the BoC is confident that their current stance will bring it down further. In the current inflationary environment, the portfolio manager believes the investment narrative should continue to improve and provide a better backdrop for equities.

The portfolio manager continues to focus on companies with low leverage and higher visibility. Growth companies present a good opportunity in the near future, and the portfolio manager will look to capitalize on investment opportunities when they arise. The portfolio manager believes the Underlying Fund's higher-quality, diversified approach can help protect the portfolio during periods of elevated uncertainty and volatility in global equity markets.

Related Party Transactions

AGFI is the manager ("Manager") of the Fund. Pursuant to the management agreement between the Fund and AGFI, AGFI is responsible for the day-to-day business of the Fund. AGFI also acts as the investment (portfolio) manager, managing the investment portfolio of the Fund. Under the management agreement, the Fund (except for Series I, Series O, Series Q and Series W Shares, if applicable) pays management fees, calculated based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series of the Fund. Management fees of approximately $1,530,000 were incurred by the Fund during the six months ended March 31, 2024.

Certain operating expenses relating to registrar and transfer agency services are paid directly by AGFI and in exchange, a fixed rate administration fee is payable by the Mutual Fund Series, Series F, Series FV, Series I, Series T and Series V Shares, as applicable, of the Fund. The administration fee is calculated based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series of the Fund at a fixed annual rate, as disclosed in the current prospectus. Administration fees of approximately $69,000 were incurred by the Fund during the six months ended March 31, 2024.

AGFI is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of AGF Management Limited.

Caution Regarding Forward-looking Statements

This report may contain forward-looking statements about the Fund, including its strategy, expected performance and condition. Forward looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates" or negative versions thereof and similar expressions.

In addition, any statement that may be made concerning future performance, strategies or prospects, and possible future Fund action, is also a forward-looking statement. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events and are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions about the Fund and economic factors.

The forward-looking statements are by their nature based on numerous assumptions, which include, amongst other things, that (i) the Fund can attract and maintain investors and has sufficient capital under management to effect its investment strategies, (ii) the investment strategies will produce the results intended by the portfolio manager, and (iii) the markets will react and perform in a manner consistent with the investment strategies. Although the forward-looking statements contained herein are based upon what the portfolio manager believes to be reasonable assumptions, the portfolio manager cannot assure that actual results will be consistent with these forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and actual events and results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by the Fund. Any number of important factors could contribute to these digressions, including, but not limited to, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, global equity and capital markets, business competition, taxation, changes in government regulations, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, technological changes, cybersecurity, the possible effects of war or terrorist activities, outbreaks of disease or illness that affect local, national or international economies (such as COVID-19), natural disasters and disruptions to public infrastructure, such as transportation, communications, power or water supply or other catastrophic events.

It should be stressed that the above-mentioned list of factors is not exhaustive. You are encouraged to consider these and other factors carefully before making any investment decisions and you are urged to avoid placing

Explanatory Notes

- (1) a) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements. Under International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), investments that are traded in an active market are generally valued at closing price, which is determined to be within the bid-ask spread and most representative of fair value. As a result, there is no difference between the net assets per share presented in the financial statements ("Net Assets") and the net asset value per share calculated for fund pricing purposes ("Net Asset Value").
- b) The following series of the Fund commenced operations on the following dates, which represents the date upon which securities of a series were first made available for purchase by investors.

- (2) Net Assets, dividends and distributions are based on the actual number of shares outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding over the financial period.
- (3) Dividends and distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional shares of the Fund, or both.

Series FV, Series T and Series V Shares of the Fund may make monthly distributions of capital so long as there is sufficient capital attributable to the series. The capital per share of the Series FV, Series T and Series V Shares as applicable, is as follows:

As at	Mar 31, 2024 ($)	Sept 30, 2023 ($)	Sept 30, 2022 ($)	Sept 30, 2021 ($)	Sept 30, 2020 ($)	Sept 30, 2019 ($)

Series V Shares	13.77	14.00	14.57	14.66	15.00	15.15

- (4) This is not a reconciliation of the beginning and ending Net Assets per share.
- (5) The management expense ratio ("MER") of a particular series is calculated in accordance with National Instrument 81-106, based on all the expenses of the Fund (including Harmonized Sales Tax, Goods and Services Tax and interest, but excluding income tax, foreign withholding taxes, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) attributable to that series, expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value of that series during the period. For new series launched during the period, the MER is annualized from the date of the first external purchase.

As a result of the Fund's investment in the Underlying Fund, the MER is calculated based on the expenses of the Fund allocated to that series, including expenses indirectly incurred by the Fund attributable to its investment in the Underlying Fund, divided by the average daily Net Asset Value of that series of the Fund during the period.

The Fund does not pay duplicate management fees on the portion of the assets that it invests in the Underlying Fund. Accordingly, AGFI will waive the management fees payable or paid by the Underlying Fund in order to avoid such duplication.

- (6) AGFI waived certain fees or absorbed certain expenses otherwise payable by the Fund. The amount of expenses waived or absorbed is determined annually on a series by series basis at the discretion of AGFI and AGFI can terminate the waiver or absorption at any time.

- (7) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily Net Asset Value during the period.

As a result of the Fund's investment in the Underlying Fund, the TER is calculated based on commissions and other portfolio transaction costs of the Fund, including such costs that are indirectly incurred by the Fund attributable to its investment in the Underlying Fund, divided by the average daily Net Asset Value of the Fund during the period.

- (8) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's PTR in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

PTR is calculated based on the lesser of the cumulative cost of purchases or cumulative proceeds of sales divided by the average market value of the portfolio, excluding short-term investments.

Management Fees

The Fund is managed by AGFI. As a result of providing investment and management services, AGFI receives a monthly management fee, based on the Net Asset Value of the respective series, calculated daily and payable monthly. Management fees in respect of Series I, Series O, Series Q and Series W Shares, if applicable, are arranged directly between the Manager and investors and are not expenses of the Fund. AGFI uses these management fees to pay for sales and trailing commissions to registered dealers on the distribution of the Fund's shares, investment advice, as well as for general administrative expenses such as overhead, salaries, rent, legal and accounting fees relating to AGFI's role as manager.

would have reduced returns or performance. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

It is AGFI's policy to report rates of return for series in existence greater than one year. The performance start date for each series represents the date of the first purchase of such series, excluding seed money.

All rates of return are calculated based on the Net Asset Value.

Year-By-Year Returns

The following bar charts show the Fund's annual performance for each of the past 10 years to September 30, 2023 (interim performance for the six months ended March 31, 2024) as applicable, and illustrate how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period.
